[The accompanying form states that Gwenddwr Independent Chapel was founded about 1700 and Crickadarn in 1813. The Register book had been in the care of the minister for the 2 years that he had been minister. It was signed by William GRIFFITHS, the minister, 9 Jan 1838]

002/3

[ In answer to the questions on the circular from the Commissioners enquiring into non-parochial registers William Griffiths wrote that: earlier Registers were kept for a long period by the minister of Tredustan chapel, after that by the minister of the independent chapel at Bulth. The principal acting Deacons were John WILLIAMS and Evan EVANS.]
